¹The Executive Committee will review proposals and select the site of the NACDEP Annual Conference. Conference dates will be proposed by the sponsoring state. Historically, NACDEP Annual Conference takes place between Sunday and Wednesday in a given week sometime from March through June. Favorable seasonal weather conditions should be considered when selecting dates. Furthermore, conflicts with other organizations such as the Community Development Society; National Extension Tourism (NET) Conference; other JCEP member organizations; state/regional organization conferences; and academic discipline conferences such as AAEA, Rural Sociology, etc., should also be considered in date selection.

IV. Please discuss the proposed conference site's ability to attract conference attendees²:

a. General information (please include information on airport airline service, population of host city, and other pertinent details, etc.)

b. Examples of off-site experiential professional development opportunities

c. Tourism and recreational opportunities for both participants and guests.

² The NACDEP Annual Conference is typically held Sunday thru Wednesday with dates ranging from mid-March to mid-June.
